

I am very much opposed to any limit on what XM Radio can provide its customers. When I travel, I have no way of knowing how to find what local radio stations would appeal to me without scanning stations which I feel is distracting to the driver.